

New Chinese Ambassador to Zambia Li Jie and the delegation surveyed China Nonferrous Metal Mining Group in Luanshya

On May 19, 2018 of local time, it was a sunny day and the gold chrysanthemum was full bloom, and it was the time entering the dry and cold season. The new Chinese Ambassador Li Jie to Zambia went to China Nonferrous Metal Mining Group in Luanshya invested in Zambia for field survey accompanied by the Chairman of Board of Director Mr. Tao Xinghu.

The Ambassador Li Jie and the delegation investigated the Opencast Stope in Muliyaxi of China Nonferrous Metal Mining Group in Luanshya on site, went to the Electrowinning Workshop of Hydrometallurgy Plant in Muliyaxi of China Nonferrous Metal Mining Group in Luanshya, and understood the details of historical evolution, technological process, technological innovation, quality management, cost control, environmental protection and other conditions of China Nonferrous Metal Mining Group in Luanshya.

(Shi Fawu (the first from the right), the Deputy Manager of China Nonferrous Metal Mining Group in Luanshya, introduced the conditions to the Ambassador (middle) Li Jie and the Chairman of Board of Directors Tao Xinghu (the first from the left))

(In the front of production process flow model of Hydrometallurgy Plant in Muliyaxi, the Chairman Tao Xinghu (the first from the right) and Liu Yuanyuan (the first from the left), the Deputy General Manager of China Nonferrous Metal Mining Group in Luanshya introduced to the Ambassador Li Jie (middle))

The Ambassador Li Jie cared greatly the status of technological level of Hydrometallurgy Plant of China Nonferrous Metal Mining Group in Luanshya in the world' s same industry. Liu Yuanyuan, the Deputy General Manager, introduced that, Hydrometallurgy Plant in Muliyaxi was completed and put into production in April 2012, through a lot of practices in the aspect of technological innovation and production, the company' s technological level was stable gradually, the cooper output was increased year by year, the copper leaching rate reached the designed level, and it can be said that the stirring leaching process was unique in the world with the completely independent intellectual property, the heap leaching process obtained the implementation plan for curing fabric and this was the unique company in Africa, and the quality of cathode copper reached 99.997% of high-quality copper standard and was ranked in leading level in the same industry.

The Chairman Tao Xinghu focused in introducing the leading concept and design of environmental protection of Hydrometallurgy Plant of China Nonferrous Metal Mining Group in Luanshya to the Ambassador Li Jie, and the company realized zero pollution and zero emission, and was the pioneer of environmental protection practitioner in Zambia.

The Ambassador Li Jie affirmed the company' s development strategy during investigation fully, and encouraged China Nonferrous Metal Mining Group in Luanshya to keep the good development momentum, perform social responsibilities actively, establish the good image of Chinese enterprise and promote Chinese enterprises stronger and larger to ensure preservation and increase of value of overseas state-owned assets.

The former of China Nonferrous Metal Mining Group in Luanshya is Luanshya Copper Mine which has the mining history of one hundred years and was ever ranked in world's three major copper mines, and was acquired by the company in 2009 through winning the international bidding and renamed to Sino-Zambian Joint Venture Mining Company. At present, the company has total 1085 Chinese and Zambian employees, including 76 Chinese employees.

After the end of visit and investigation, the Ambassador Li Jie and the delegation left China Nonferrous Metal Mining Group in Luanshya and went to Africa Minerals, Chambishi Hydrometallurgy, Chambishi Copper Melting of China Nonferrous Metal Mining Group and other enterprises invested by the company for investigation. The members of delegation also include the wife of Ambassador Li Jinmei, the secretary of Business Department of Embassy Peng Yutian, Zhang Zhiyi, etc.

(Prepared by: Pan Bin)